

Warrior Hockey ACADEMY

"Remarkable once-in-a-lifetime experience. This needs to be at every city. Words cannot express how much this means to me as a Veteran, hockey fan, and overall person. This experience has enlightened me and helped instill confidence."

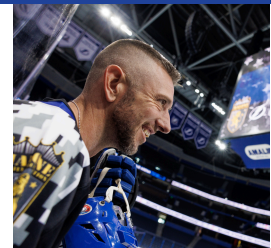

ABOUT: Warrior Hockey Academy is a signature program of The Malone Family Foundation led by Ryan & Greg Malone. This no cost initiative offers mind, body + spirit training to local Veteran & First Responder hockey players by the Malone family, members of the NHL Alumni Association & experts in their respective fields. The goal of Warrior Hockey Academy is to improve each participant's mental health & overall wellness. Warrior Hockey Academies have been held across our country with the 2nd annual academy in Tampa set for November 22nd at Benchmark International Arena.

"One of the best parts of the day was feeling like we were important. None of us are pros but the pro experience was such a special thing to have. It felt like we were rookies or recruits to a big hockey program and that was just really cool to me."

Dave Cooper offered the Keynote Address to 650 Veterans at The Malone Family Foundation's Warrior Hockey Academy in Minnesota. Cooper is a Former Navy SEAL and founder of the Verge. During his service with the Naval Special Warfare Development Group, Cooper completed dozens of tours, and alongside his teammates, successfully executed some of the most significant Special Operations missions in the history of the U.S. Military. From September 2009 to September 2011, Cooper served as the Command Master Chief of this storied unit.

"As a former U.S. Navy SEAL, I've seen firsthand the pivotal role that The Malone Family Foundation plays in the lives of Veterans by offering a unique blend of healing, growth, and support through hockey. Ryan and his crew provide Veterans with much-needed opportunities to focus on their mental, physical, and emotional wellbeing, all while playing a great team sport. By reigniting their sense of camaraderie and community, the foundation helps Veterans navigate their post-service challenges and promotes resilience and personal development in the process. They are not only committed to supporting those who have served, but it is their honor to do so." -DAVE COOPER
